SENATOR GORE SPEAKS AT OKLAHOMA CITY

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 9.—While advocating the nomination of Woodrow Wilson and predicting that he alone of the candidates could be elected President, United States Senator Gore tonight, in the only campaign speech he has made in Oklahoma touching the presidential race, urged that democrats should harmonize their differences so they could unite in a common cause after the national convention.

The senator said nothing derogatory to either Clark or Harmon, and, while the event, coming on the eve of the democratic precinct conventions, was advertised as a democratic speech Wilson people understood that the senator would, as they expressed it, "throw in a little Wilson sentiment as he went along." As the large audience that listened to the senator filed out of the Lyric theatre after the speaking two men stood at the door, passing out printed sheets, headed "Woodrow Wilson's record by their fruits ye shall know them."

The printed matter was a statement from ex-Senator R. F. Pettigrew of South Dakota, issued after having read the fifth volume of Woodrow Wilson's "History of the American People."

Senator Gore did not spend much time on the Muskogee story that he had been intimidated into taking the stump for Wilson.

"I have never surrendered, nor compromised my right of free speech, and never will," said the Senator, which remark brought forth much applause.

"If ever driven to being a private citizen or a silent official sphinx I will take the former with its freedom rather than the latter with its badge of official bondage."

He referred to the Muskogee story as "an effort of a republican newspaper to throw dissension into the democratic camp. 'Only three men,' (whom, however, he did not name), 'had he heard of constituting themselves judges to set the seal of silence upon his lips.' He said that 'he had reached the conclusion, they were freaks rather than dictators.'"

He added, however, that when he issued his statement he had heard no Clark man take the position that he could not speak, saying that he knew that outside of Oklahoma the tide had turned toward Wilson, and adding

CLAIMS TO HAVE OVER 40,000 SIGNATURES—HOODWINKING LABOR UNIONS.

Oklahoma City, Feb. 10.—"The Akin initiative petition will be filed at the office of Secretary of State Ben F. Harrison on Friday, February 23," said Oliver M. Akin, whose bill to abolish fourteen state schools has created so much discussion, Thursday evening.

Mr. Akin stated that while but 20,000 signatures to the petition are necessary he expects to have between 40,000 and 50,000. The signatures will be secured easily, he said, as the petition now bears more than the required number, and they are coming in rapidly.

The date upon which it is intended that the petition will be filed will mark just half the time given by law for its circulation, and in the opinion of those who are behind the measure fully 100,000 signatures could be obtained if the full ninety days were used.

Akin appeared before the Trades and Labor council Thursday night and spoke in behalf of his measure, explaining its purpose. At the conclusion of his speech a petition was circulated among the delegates by John Denny, secretary-treasurer of the Teamsters' union, and the signatures of practically all of the delegates to the council were secured.

that men who had views to express should express them.

"As far as I can see," said the Senator, "the Clark people, the real Clark people, prefer Wilson as second choice, and Wilson people prefer Clark as second choice; that is, if the greatest of all democrats (meaning Bryan) is not a candidate." (Applause.)

The senator said he had reserved seats in the Wilson band wagon and procession for all good democrats as soon as they "wearied of the hearse they are now following." Wilson, he said, had a clear track and no one is to head in on it.

In saying that he was for Wilson, the senator added that he wanted a man who could win.

Mrs. Drummond Receives.

One of the prettiest receptions of the season was given by Mrs. P. T. Drummond at her residence on East Main street Wednesday afternoon. About seventy guests called. The decorations were carried out in red and green, with hearts forming the main part of the decoration and indicating the approach of Valentine's day. Mrs. W. H. Ebey met the guests at the door, and were ushered in where they were served punch by Mrs. C. W. Briles and Mrs. W. K. Chaney. Mrs. Tom Hope introduced the guests to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. P. T. Drummond, Mrs. Adam L. Beck, Mrs. Chas. E. Allen, Mrs. Lewis Wilson, Mrs. J. E. Jones, Miss Rose and Mrs. Chas. Drummond. The guests of honor were Mrs. Chas. E. Allen, Mrs. Lewis Wilson and Miss Rose.

The guests were shown to the dining room by Mrs. J. D. Lasater where a salad course was served by Mesdames Welburn, Cox, Biles, Holt, Fenton, Mahville, Vadem, Couch and Sears. Mrs. C. T. Barney directed the guests to the register room where Mrs. LeRoy Anderson and Miss Fanny Wingo presided. The register was a large heart with cupids and smaller hearts for decoration. Each guest wore a heart home as a souvenir of the occasion.

C. T. Mason and wife left this morning for their future home at Springfield, Mo. Mr. Mason has held the position of assistant superintendent of the Red River division of the Frisco for some time, making his home at Ada, but has now been transferred to the same position on the Springfield division. He will be succeeded by H. T. King, formerly general yard master at Sapulpa.

HENRY SHOW WILL OPEN SEASON AT STONEWALL

J. E. Henry, proprietor of Oklahoma's only circus, will open the season of 1912 with a performance at his home town of Stonewall February 17. He will probably close the season at Ada, thereby giving the citizens of this place a better idea of the real proportions to which his show has grown. Recently the following write-up appeared in the Oklahoman:

There you are! It is a real elephant and a big one at that, and on her back a real circus band. It is an interesting picture. If you are in doubt about it, ask the boy or the girl. They know. They are better judges of such things than you are. You're becoming fossilized. They are just journeying through the years of thrills.

It is just a part of J. E. Henry's "World's Greatest Wagon Show, Circus and Menagerie, Dog and Pony Show." And "the world's greatest" has its winter home in Oklahoma. Didn't know that, did you? It is true.

We didn't know about it either, until we received a letter from J. E. Henry, the owner, who writes:

"I thought it might be of interest to your readers to know that the largest overland circus and menagerie today in the United States winters at Stonewall, Okla., on their own farm, one-half mile north of that town, and are positively the owners of the largest elephant in the United States, and the only one living that carries a brass band on her back."

To give you an idea of the size of our circus I will enumerate some of our paraphernalia that is carried with the show: Twenty-five baggage wagons (count 'em), 5 house wagons or sleepers, 9 cages of rare animals, 3 Shetland pony buggies, 2 clown carts, 1 miniature patrol wagon, 1 large band wagon, 1 complete electric light plant to supply light for the entire show, which is a 20-horse-power gasoline engine and all light fixtures.

"The animals to be seen in the menagerie are: One pair large African lions, 1 pair tigers, 1 pair leopards, 1 pair kangaroos, 1 large black bear, 1 black lobo wolf, 1 deer, 1 llama, 1 camel, 10 monkeys, 8 birds of paradise, 1 ant eater, 1 black yak from Tartary, Asia, 1 pair Oregon lynxes, 2 baboons, 1 ryena. We require 110 head of draft stock, 20 head of light horses, 12 Shetland ponies, 4 head of ring stock.

"We always boost Oklahoma on our season trips. Last season we visited Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Iowa, Missouri, Northern Arkansas and Oklahoma."

Seriously, if we had all the gold in the Sierras, we'd gladly give it to be a boy again and spend a day visiting J. E. Henry's circus in its winter quarters at Stonewall. Wouldn't you?

TIPPING CONCESSIONS.

Persons who resent the tipping system will be interested in reading a little inside history of the way it is carried on in big city hotels.

A case in the Circuit Court in Chicago, wherein two partners were squabbling over the division of tips, showed how systematic the plan for extorting fees from patrons has become.

The hearing developed the fact that the partners bought the tip concession from Chicago hotels and cafes, and supplied attendants in these places who had pocketless uniforms and were required to turn over to their employes all the tips they received.

A row over the division of the spoils brought the partners into court and called forth a round denunciation from Judge Bretano, who branded tipping as illegal and un-American.

Many men and women who have been giving tips for years in the belief that waiters, bellboys and portters enjoyed the money will be astounded to hear that many big hotels which charge exorbitant rates also farm out the tipping concession and receive a revenue from contractors, who pay for the privilege of supplying help which will prey on patrons.

The system of the Pullman Company is the same in effect. It pays such slight wages that its employes are forced to seek tips to supplement their earnings from the company.

Why should the public—the public, which is paying its way—be forced to undergo such a system of grafting? It is not honest for companies to resort to such low practices, and a long-suffering public could soon cure the evil if all travelers would unite in a movement to stamp it out.—Nashville Tennessean.

All very nice in theory when it comes to talking about cutting out tips, but the American traveler would not for a moment think of placing himself in the attitude of being broke or short. A withering glance from the Senegambian who lords it over the Pullman car, or presides as chief hash slinger at a big hotel will bring him to time hereafter just as in the past. He could not think of lowering himself in the estimation of said dignitaries, although in his heart he would like to choke the life out of them.

Ada citizens should not lose sight of the excursion train on the Frisco that will arrive on the morning of March 4. The prospectors will have seen the best part of Texas, and will have an excellent opportunity to see the best Oklahoma has to offer. This section is more like what they are accustomed to than is the coast country of Texas, and is far enough south to escape the extreme cold weather which makes life in the northern regions such a burden, and if its advantages are shown as they should be, Ada should be able to capture some very desirable citizens. The train will stop but thirty minutes, but much can be done in that time, if everything is planned out in advance.

BOOKS FOR BLIND CHEAPER

New Method of Printing. Discovered in France, Has Lowered the Cost Materially.

Books for the blind are to be very much cheaper because of a new method of printing them discovered in France, and free libraries for the blind are to be established throughout the provinces of France. This information comes here from the Paris correspondent of the Journal of the American Medical Association, who writes:

"Books with raised letters used by the blind are generally very expensive. They have, up to the present time, been of two distinct types: First, those which were stereotyped, the manufacturing process being so expensive that frequent printing of new books is made almost impossible; second, those written by hand by some blind person whose good will does not prevent him from making frequent inaccuracies, and who can make but one copy at a time, and that only slowly.

"Now M. Ernest Vaughn, the director of Hospice des Quinze-Vingts, has devised a press for printing books for the blind by means of which a text of irreproachable exactness can be obtained and at a cost much less than that of either the stereotyped or the hand-written books. To place this system on the market he has founded the Societe Philanthropique d'Impressions pour les Aveugles, of which the celebrated writer, Anatole France, member of the Academie Française, is president."—New York Times.

SHE HAD KEPT NOTHING BACK

Young Lady With Seven Transfers Explains Deficiency to Street Car Conductor.

Seven bright young girls, each in a new gown and all in the highest spirits, boarded a street car in Philadelphia. The announced intention of all was to transfer at a certain junction, and to this end the girl in the red hat, who appeared to be the leader of the expedition, got seven transfers. But the other six changed their minds before they got to the transfer point and declared themselves in favor of a shopping tour. Only the girl with the red hat stuck to the original plan and changed cars at the junction mentioned. To the conductor who came to take her fare she handed the bunch of transfers—the original seven.

The conductor looked at her, and on each side of her, and all around her. She was oblivious. Then he asked: "Where are the others?"

The girl looked startled and confused for an instant, and then she said, with cold dignity: "Those are all the transfer man gave me."

Latest German Fad.

Germany's latest fad seems to be the "Undosabad," destroyed by a Berlin engineer, and claimed to be the first transportable covered swimming bath which affords a practical substitute for the usual expensive buildings. The swimming basin is inexpensive and may be easily transported to any convenient location. The water supply may be obtained from a lake, river, springs, or from the town water works, as the use of the filter minimizes the amount of fresh water necessary and so reduces the number of germs that the water is purer than when freshly introduced. The bath is sheltered by a canvas roof and furnished with a motor so that the air and water can be warmed and the temperature regulated. The motor's surplus power can also be utilized in generating waves of three feet or less in height, thus destroying all germs that remain, and add to the attraction by simulating the ocean.

Artificial Wood.

Louis Carre, in England, has invented a process for the artificial production of wood from straw or dried grass. It is proposed to use the wood, not only in the manufacture of matches, for which purpose it is said to be cheaper than natural wood. The straw is passed through crushing rolls and then through cylindrical cutters, which divide it into strips. Afterward, supplied with an adhesive, the strips, enclosed on top and bottom with layers of paper, are passed between other rolls, and through linked moulds in the form of a chain, where they are subjected to pressure and heat, from which they issue in the form of round splints, which are then cut into the proper length for matches.—Scientific American.

Parent Vine of All Grapes.

Hugo Lilienthal, who believes that he has discovered the parent vine of all grapes in the world—the vine which produced the enormous clusters of grapes found by the spies of Moses on their first entrance into the Holy Land—is superintendent of parks in Berkeley, California. The specimen was found by him in Palestine in 1834. Claim is made that the improved plants now produce bunches of grapes 30 inches long. Lilienthal has not grown the plant in Berkeley, but declares that when it is distributed it will be one of the wonders of the world and will treble the grape-growing capacity of the country.

STEAM ROLLER RUNS OVER CLARK MEN

Wilson Men Control Conventions of Three Wards—Jno. Crawford National Committeeman.

The Wilson men ran the steam roller over the Clark cohorts at the Second ward convention this afternoon, and made quick work of it, too. The test of strength came up on the election of chairman. The Wilson men nominated Prof. A. L. Fentem and the Clark crowd put up Judge T. D. McKeown. The vote stood 17 to 9. Prof. W. D. Little was elected secretary.

On motion the chair appoint a committee of three to nominate delegates, the following were appointed, A. M. Croxton, T. W. Robinson and J. Frank Lilly. The committee was instructed to nominate three delegates and three alternates to the county convention. The following were nominated: E. S. Ratliff, C. W. Briles and C. S. Wood. Alternates: Byron Norrell, A. M. Croxton, W. K. Chaney, Norrell being the only Clark man chosen. The delegates were sent without instructions.

In the first ward, the Wilson men also won out, the test vote standing 14 to 11. In this convention the question arose concerning the right of the precinct committee to preside over the meeting, but Committeeman Harrison stuck to his guns and presided throughout the deliberations of the meeting. W. C. Duncan was elected secretary.

J. W. Bolen moved that a committee composed of A. D. Tanner, Bailey M. Bobbitt and J. T. Conn be elected to nominate delegates. Judge Galbraith moved as a substitute that the chair appoint a committee of three, but was defeated by the vote given above.

The committee nominated J. W. Bolen, S. M. Torbett, W. T. Cox, C. A. Galbraith, J. P. Crawford and F. P. L'Heuallen as delegates, the first three being Wilson and the last three Clark men.

The delegation was instructed to vote for Wilson in the county convention.

A resolution was offered indorsing Robert Galbreath for national committeeman. A substitute was offered in favor of Robert Gillam of Ardmore. Another substitute was offered indorsing J. P. Crawford of Ada, which was unanimously adopted.

In the Fourth ward Wilson sentiment also won out by a vote of 7 to 6. W. H. Braley was elected secretary and Committeeman King presided. A committee composed of Geo. Thompson, W. J. Shipman and W. B. Barry was appointed to nominate delegates. It selected R. M. Roddie, W. H. Braley, Geo. Thompson, I. M. King and I. Wymore. Alternates: R. C. Roland, W. J. Shipman, Wm. Edmiston, J. M. Brundige and Jim Perry. Wymore was the only Clark man put on the delegation which was uninstructed.

The Third ward convention will be held this evening at 7:30 at Deacon's Marble yard.

SCHOOLS WILL OPEN TUESDAY MORNING

The school houses are being thoroughly fumigated today and the task will be completed in time to begin work again Tuesday morning. The board has had blank health certificates printed and placed in the hands of the physicians of the city, which will be filled out and given to the children found in good health. All parents must see the physicians and obtain one of these for each child, otherwise, a child will not be admitted to the schools. All of the physicians seen by the board agreed to issue these free of cost to the parents.

CONVENTION RESULTS IN RURAL PRECINCTS

This morning the precinct convention held at Daggs elected J. R. Lea and W. S. Kerr as delegates to the county convention. Capitol Hill elected C. O. Bills and E. H. Lucas. Price School house elected S. R. Tolbert.

Caring for Teeth of Horses.

When the teeth of the human family need so much attention to prevent decay and to prevent or relieve pain, we may well wonder what the lower animals must suffer at times when but little or no attention is given to them in the way of caring for their teeth. In a colt, the teeth are temporary and are shed and replaced by permanent teeth. There are twenty-four of the temporary and thirty-six of the permanent teeth, not including the tusks. The teeth are subject to

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

It is a generally recognized truth that medicines made from vegetable ingredients are a great deal better adapted to the delicate human system, and safer in every way, than those composed of strong mineral mixtures and compounds. Mercury, potash, arsenic, etc., which are used in the manufacture of most blood medicines, are too violent in their action, and frequently derange the system by disturbing the stomach and digestion, affecting the bowels, and when used for a prolonged period often cause Rheumatism. S. S. S. is the only blood medicine guaranteed absolutely and purely vegetable. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, selected for their purifying and healing qualities. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other blood diseases, because it cleanses and purifies the blood, and at the same time builds up the entire system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. S. S. S. may be taken by young and old with absolute safety, and with the assurance that it will cure the diseases and disorders due to an impure and poisoned blood supply, even reaching down and removing hereditary taints. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

being broken, to decay and to uneven wear and often cause just as much annoyance to the horse as bad teeth to man.

One of the most common of the popular notions regarding the teeth of the horse is that the wolf teeth or so-called "blind teeth" cause much trouble. These small supernumerary teeth located in front of the molars are supposed to be the cause in many cases of bad eyes, to cause the enlargement of the bones of the face and many other troubles. The blind teeth cause no trouble and but little of any inconvenience. They may easily be removed with a small pair of pincers as the tooth is not securely set in the jaw. The lumps often seen on the face in young horses come from troubles with the jaw teeth, most often with the second or third molar. The colt teeth in shedding often do not come away as they should and remain as caps over the other teeth and in this way may cause trouble which results in enlargement of the bones of the face. Often a tooth begins to soften and decay and the tooth opposite will grow long and in a short time cause trouble in eating as well as pain. The edges of the jaw teeth may become sharp and cut the cheek causing fretting and also prevent easy mastication of food.

There is nearly always a peculiarly disagreeable odor from the mouth if there are any diseased teeth present. Any one may examine a horse's mouth carefully by using a plow clevis. Turn this on edge just back of the front teeth and draw the tongue to one side through the open end of the clevis. This will give a good view of the mouth, especially if the horse is placed so that the direct sunlight may enter the mouth. There is no doubt but that many horses show bad temper and are irritable and nervous from the annoyance of bad teeth. The more common defects of the teeth may be detected by stockman and they should receive attention before they become too serious. —L. L. Lewis, Veterinarian, A. & M. College, Stillwater, Okla.

AMENDMENT BLOCKS AGREEMENT ON DIRECT ELECTION

Washington, Feb. 9.—The conferees of the two houses of congress on the joint resolution providing for the election of senators by direct vote have decided to report a disagreement after six months of effort to get together. The report, however, will not be made until friends of the resolution feel sure of the presence in the senate of all its supporters.

The disagreement is over the Bristow amendment retaining the supervision of congress and there will be a motion in the senate to recede from that provision. It is believed that this motion would carry as only a majority vote will be required; but there is not such assurance of the adoption of the resolution after the elimination of the Bristow provision as a two thirds vote is necessary for passage.

CRUCE WILL NOT BE CANDIDATE FOR DELEGATE

Oklahoma City, Ok., Feb. 11.—Gov. Cruce will not be a candidate for delegate to the National democratic convention, neither will he accept if the place is tendered to him according to announcements made today. It had been planned by the leaders to name the governor as a delegate also to place on the delegation others holding official positions.

At a meeting of the central committee for Comanche county some time ago resolutions were adopted protesting against any elective or appointive officer being named on the national convention delegation but the idea does not appear to have gained ground. The fact that the governor is not inclined to leave the office temporarily to others, it is said, does not control him in his decision. He was delegate to the last national convention, held at Denver.

Blames the Romans.
A sartorial authority says that the custom of dressing for dinner began with the Romans. It was needless to say, a simpler procedure than at present. A loose robe of a fine material was donned for the evening meal, preferably at home, but in cases where guests came from a distance, at the home of the host, he kept a supply of dinner clothes on hand for the use of his guests who came unprovided.

C. S. Aldrich has sold his stock of groceries to Will A. Guest and his father, W. N. Guest. Hereafter the store will be known as Modern Cash Grocery. 264-tf

L. R. Clark of the Wigwam was down from Francis this morning. He stated that only one case of meningitis has appeared at that place to date, being that of a child who died from the disease.

The DeSota has been thoroughly fumigated by Mr. Walters, so everybody is safe in visiting this theatre. They are featuring "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" tonight, made by the famous Thanhouser Co., Jan. 16.

Miss Rose Tobias and Messrs. Benson Crockett and Creech Lower of the Majestic theatre left yesterday afternoon for Holdenville to furnish the music two nights at the opera house.

The Majestic and DeSota theatres will open again this evening. They were fumigated this morning, and if the stink which smote the nostrils of the reporter as he passed meant anything, not a germ could be found in the houses, unless they are embalmed ones.

Change in Place of Meeting.

The precinct convention of the Third Ward will be held at Deaton's marble yard this evening at 7:30, instead of at the city hall as previously announced.

GRANDMOTHERS USED SAGE TEA

To Darken the Hair and Restore Gray and Faded Hair to Its Natural Color.

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made a "sage tea," and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair and are fast following suit.

The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready-to-use preparation called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy. As a scalp tonic and hair restorer this preparation is vastly superior to the ordinary "sage tea" made by our grandmothers.

This remedy is sold under guarantee that the money will be refunded if it fails to do exactly as represented. If your hair is losing color or coming out, start using Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur today, and see what a change it will make in a few days' time.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle. Special Agents, Gwin & Mays Drug Co.
